

KLM MOBILE SOLUTIONS

Customized mobile applications for universities and colleges.

YOU WANT TO BE YOUR OWN BOSS? YOU WANT TO RESHAPE THE FUTURE OF HOW UNIVERSITIES COMMUNICATE? OR EVEN MORE?

Join KLM Mobile Solutions as CEO and do it!

KLM Mobile Solutions is a young start-up based in Mannheim and was founded by two former students of the University of Mannheim. We develop smartphone applications for universities – such as the official University of Mannheim App. Further Apps are already in pipe and it's time for you to get them started! Apply as CEO and be part of the team!

You are the perfect match if:

- You are passionate about entrepreneurship and implementing your own ideas
- You are highly motivated, highly committed and want to get things done
- You possess excellent organizational skills and are able to motivate a team
- You are interested in new media and have already gained experience in the field
- You like to take over a high level of responsibility and don't like the boring 9 to 5 jobs!

And that's what's waiting for you:

- Great opportunity for an entrepreneurial experience in sales, marketing, project management and accounting
- The freedom to grow a business and define the way to success
- The chance to get in touch with other entrepreneurs and developers and to build up your own network
- A lot of responsibility and an independent way of working
- A great salary based upon your success

So what are you waiting for? Tell us why you are the perfect match.

Apply and become part!
